A reading from Prophet Isaiah

“For the sake of my servant Jacob,
and Israel my chosen, I call you by your name,
I name you, though you do not know me.
I am the Lord, and there is no other,
besides me there is no God;
I equip you, though you do not know me,
that people may know, from the rising of the sun
and from the west, that there is none besides me;
I am the Lord, and there is no other.”

In this scripture, what do you hear?

This reading is a reminder that God's sovereignty does not just extend to a certain group of people.

"I name you, though you do not know me."

God is sovereign over all His creation, and He calls us by name.

He calls YOU by your name.

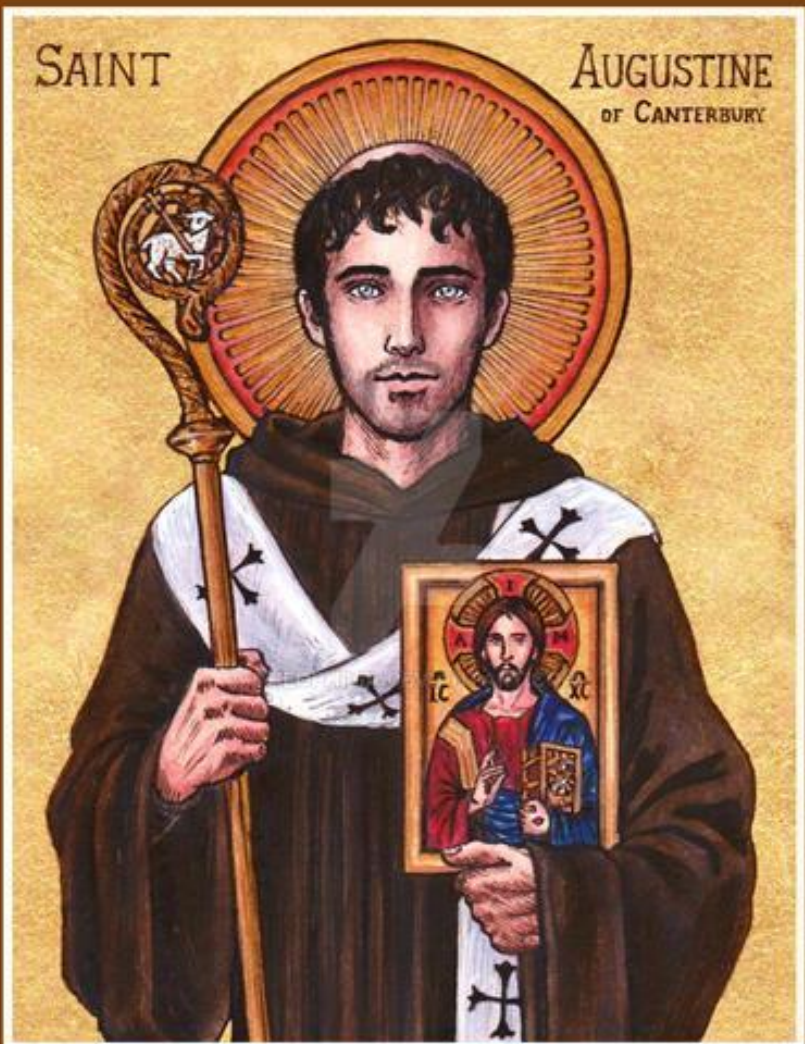

It is also a reminder that God's love does not just extend to a certain group of people.

"I equip you, though you do not know me."

God loves us all.

God loves you, and God will provide for you.

Think about how you can respond to God's love...

Let us
pray -

I wonder how you will respond to God's love...?

Almighty God,
by the preaching of St Augustine of Canterbury, you led the people of England to the gospel.
Grant, we pray, the grace to love and serve through Christ.

In imitation of our great patron, may we do so in a spirit of love, respect, service, joy, and responsibility.

Amen

St. Augustine, pray for us.
St Cuthbert, pray for us.

Jesus thank you for the gift of this new
We end this day with prayer

Black History Week

We have set aside this week of October, Black History Month, to recognise the contributions of the black community to Catholic history and culture; stretching all the way back to the Bible itself.

In the Acts of the Apostles, we hear about the Ethiopian who came to Philip after reading the Prophet Isaiah. "Philip told him the good news about Jesus. And as they were going along the road they came to some water and the Ethiopian said, "See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptised?" And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water... and Philip baptised him."

Black History Week

The theme of this year's Black History Month is 'honouring our communities.' We honour our communities by remembering and commemorating their history, but also through recognition and respect, by pursuing justice for those who face injustice today.

Let's take this opportunity to reflect...

Do I have the same enthusiasm for my faith as the Ethiopian convert in the Acts of the Apostles?

How does my faith inform my attitude towards those who face discrimination?

Let us pray...

Loving God,
who shows a father's care for all,
grant, in your mercy, that the members of the human race,
to whom you have given a single origin,
may form in peace a single family and always be united by a fraternal spirit.
We ask this through Jesus our Lord,
Amen.

Take a few moments to reflect on this image of St Josephine Bakhita.

What do you see?

What stands out the most for you?

St. Josephine Bakhita was born in Sudan in 1869.

At 8 years old, she was abducted by Arab slave traders, forcibly converted to their religion and subjected to nine years of violence. "When a wound from the whip began to heal, other blows would pour down on me." She was cut 114 times, each filled with salt to ensure permanent scarring.

In 1886, she was bought by an Italian family who treated her well and brought her to stay with Canossian nuns in Venice. "Those holy mothers instructed me with heroic patience and introduced me to that God who from childhood I had felt in my heart without knowing who He was."

In 1890, she was baptised 'Josephine Fortunata', confirmed and received Holy Communion from the future Pope Pius X. Josephine spent the rest of her life as a Canossian nun and died in 1947.

St. Josephine Bakhita was the first modern black saint.

Let us pray...

O God, our Father,
you call men and women from all nations
to experience the blessedness of freedom and faith.
Inflame the hearts of your children with the desire to reach the same holiness with which you filled St. Josephine Bakhita, and grant that, faithful to your commandments,
we, too, may serve you with the same purity of heart.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Our Catholic Social Teaching

Theme is:

Human Dignity

St Oscar Romero once said,
'It is not God's will for some to have everything and others to have nothing.'

Oscar Romero was an Archbishop in Central America. He lived at a time of terrible oppression and violence and he spoke out against injustice.

He was assassinated on 24 March 1980.

He is remembered for his courage, his faith and, above all, his great love for the poor.

Oscar Romero's memory is a source of strength and encouragement for us all.

As Christians, we must put our faith into action. If we want a world where poverty is eradicated, we must ensure the dignity of each person is respected and we must share what we have with our global brothers and sisters.

Will you bring just one thing for our Harvest collection?

Our Catholic Social Teaching Theme is:

Let us pray...

Human Dignity

Together we pray with the words that Jesus taught us - :

Our Father,
Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen

St Augustine, pray for us.
St Cuthbert, pray for us.

Take time...

Be with Jesus...

1. Be Still

Take a few moments to be quiet, at peace.

Place yourself in God's presence.

Prepare

Place your hands together, you can put your head on the desk if you wish! As you listen to the music reflect on the five stages.

5. Hope

Look with hope towards next week trusting in God's plans for you.

Trust in God's grace.
Remember YOU are loved!

2. Give thanks

Think back over the past week...

What are you especially thankful for this week?

3. Reflect

Be honest about your day and the past week.

What brought you joy?

What challenged you?

4. Pray

Ask God to guide you by turning to Him confidently, placing all your hopes and concerns into His hands, knowing and trusting in His eternal love for you.

Jesus thank you for
